

An Evening of Irish History and Philosophy:

Applied Ethical Philosophy

Featuring a talk by Dr. Bill Starr (Philosophy professor), live fiddle and guitar music by Philosophy graduate students, and discussion to follow by the Philosophy Club

THURSDAY, MARCH 3: 6:30-8:30 P.M.

CUDAHY 131

From Dr. Starr: "Northern Ireland has had a terrible history for hundreds of years. After a long, bitter war between two Irish constituencies that wanted the same land, peace finally occurred in 1998 in the 'Good Friday' agreement. The talk will focus on the history leading up to this agreement, and the human rights issues that founded the agreement."

ALL STUDENTS ARE WELCOME FOR THIS OCCASION
